Ulysses and his companions have been on a boat for days.

Ulysses and his companions are very hungry.

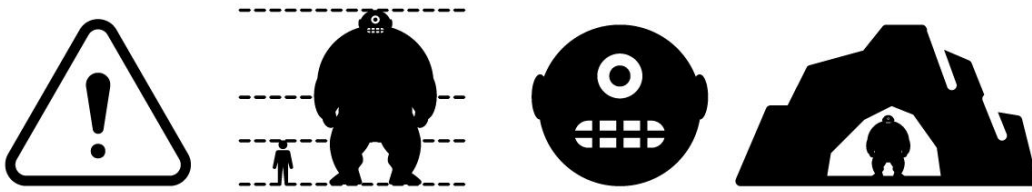

They see an island. They go to the island.

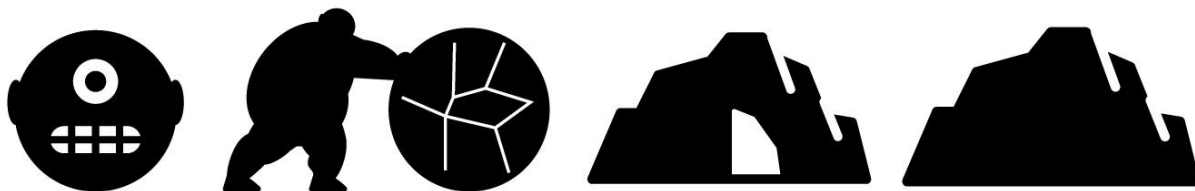

On the island, there is a cave with lots of food.

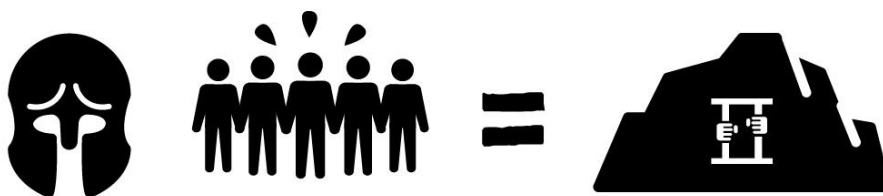

Ulysses and his companions eat everything.

Suddenly, a cyclops arrives. His name is Polyphemus.

Polyphemus closes the cave with a rock.

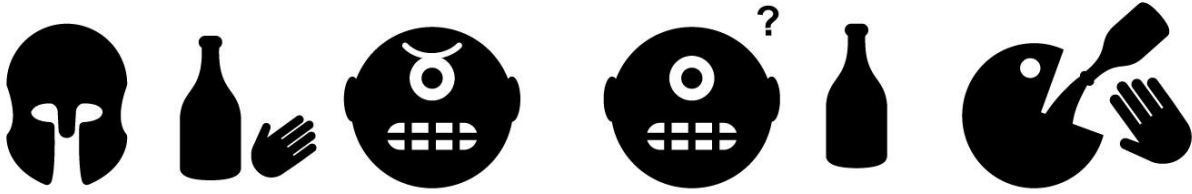

Ulysses and his companions are trapped inside.

Polyphemus is angry. He eats two men.

Ulysses and his companions are afraid. Ulysses has an idea.

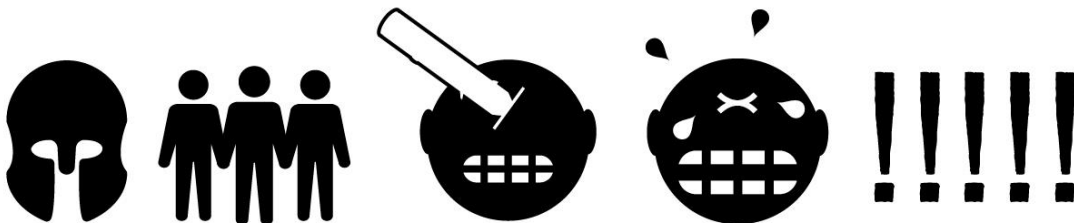

Ulysses gives the Cyclops some wine. Polyphemus drinks all the wine.

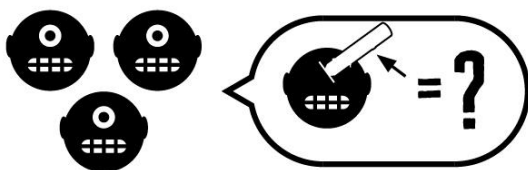

Polyphemus asks Ulysses his name. Ulysses replies, "No one."

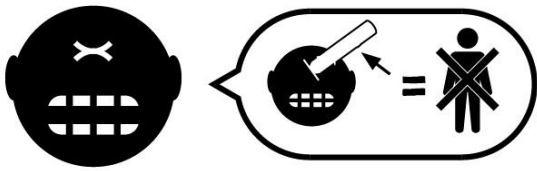

Polyphemus falls asleep. Ulysses cuts down a tree trunk.

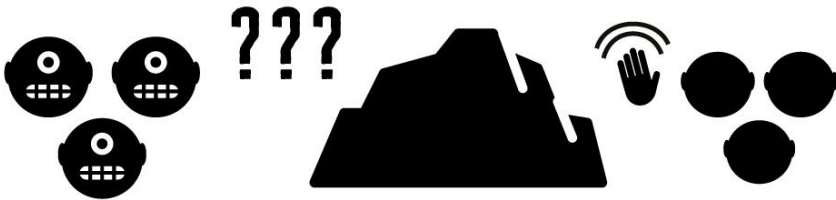

Ulysses and his companions gouge out the Cyclops's eye. He screams.

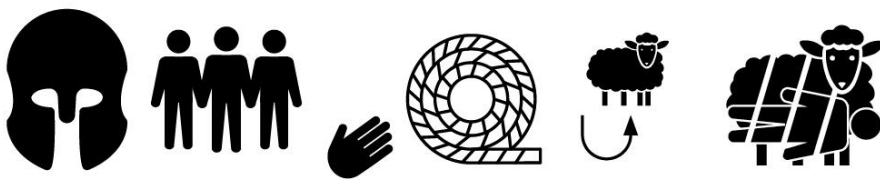

Other Cyclopes arrive. They ask, "Who did this?"

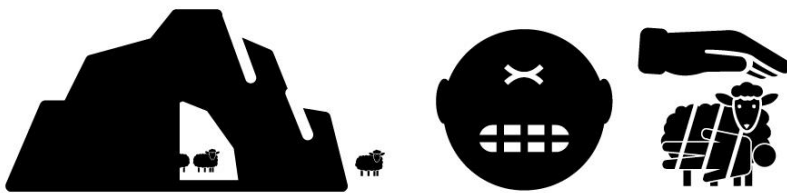

Polyphemus says, "No one"

The other Cyclopes leave.

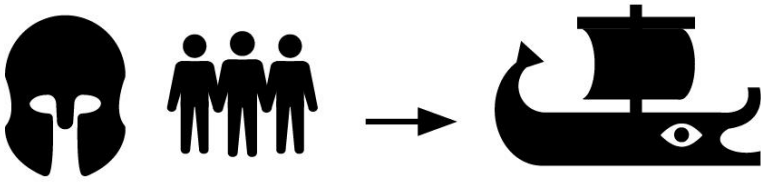

Ulysses and his companions hide among the sheep.

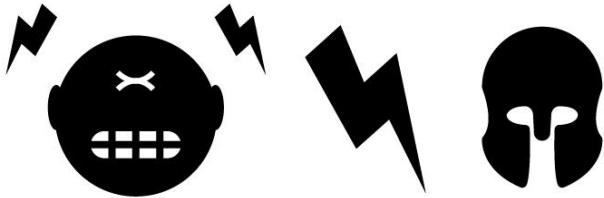

Polyphemus brings out the sheep. He touches their backs but not their bellies.

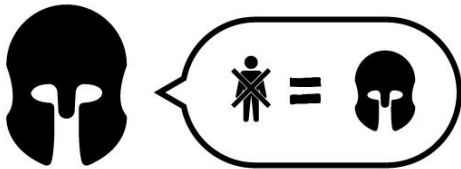

Ulysses and his companions thus leave the cave.

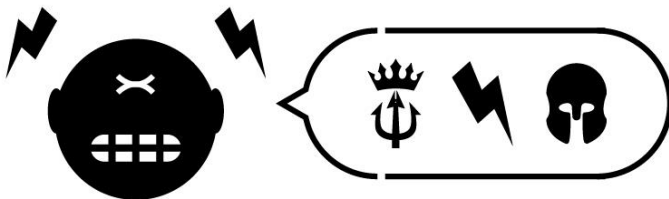

Ulysses and his companions go to the ship.

Polyphemus is very angry with Ulysses.

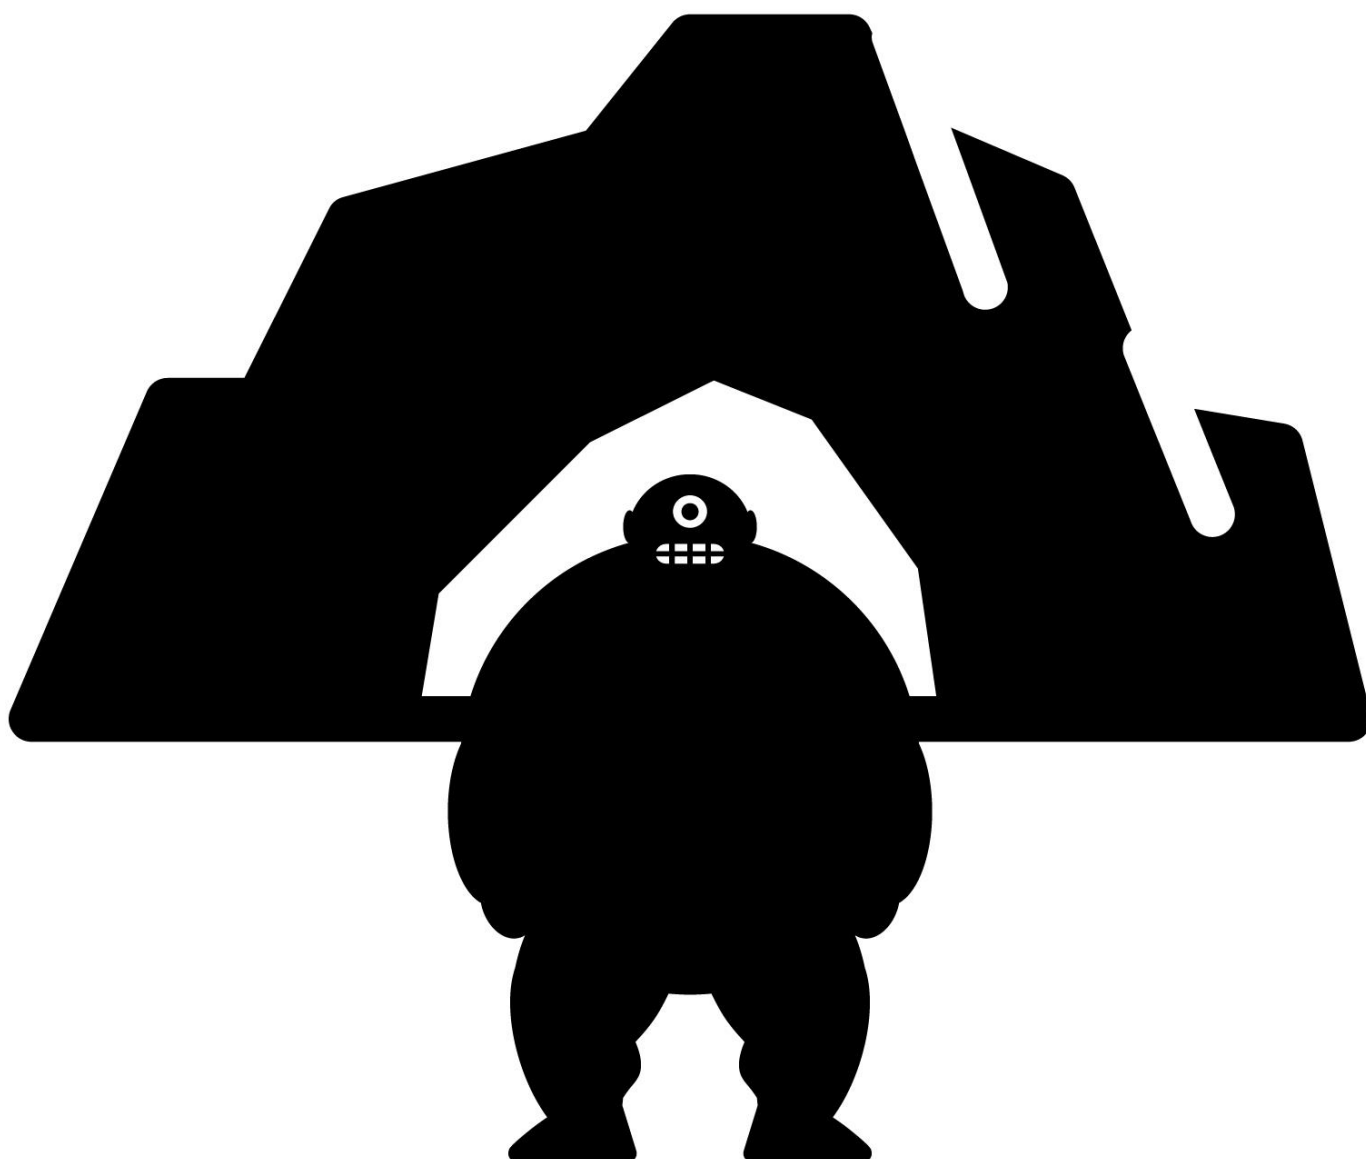

Ulysses tells the Cyclops his real name.

Polyphemus asks Poseidon to punish Ulysses.

Poseidon casts a curse on Ulysses.
